

Digital Law, Rights and Ethics

ZTH-LAW-002 | Digital Explorers | Core | Law, safety and security

6 weeks

duration

18 hours

learning time

2 x 1.5h

live sessions per week

US$60.00

fee per learner

In this course you will explain data protection principles, online rights, copyright and licences, contracts and cyber offences at a basic level.

Delivery

Offline-ready: can run without internet

Suitable for

Secondary-age 14-18, Tertiary and university, Teachers, NGOs and community hubs, Working professionals

What you will be able to do

- Explain data protection principles, online rights, copyright and licences, contracts and cyber offences at a basic level
- apply ethical decision-making to technology and AI

Syllabus

1. Rights and the constitution in the digital age
2. Privacy and data protection
3. Copyright, open licences and plagiarism
4. Contracts and online agreements
5. Cybercrime and safe practice
6. AI ethics and responsibility

Hands-on practical work

- Mock tribunal on a data-breach case
- draft a privacy notice for a school website
- classify content by licence
- read and critique a real terms-of-service
- policy debate

Resources and equipment

Case study packs, sample contracts and policies, laptops or phones, access to local legislation summaries

Off-grid and solar option

Printed case packs and role play

Assessment

Case analysis, privacy notice and presentation

Career direction

Paralegal, legal assistant, compliance and data protection assistant, policy analyst, cybersecurity analyst

Data protection, cybercrime and platform rules create growing demand for legal and compliance awareness in every organisation

Next steps

From DS5; leads to MH1 Legal and Compliance and MK6 Cybersecurity

Enrol

Skills first, certificate second: you finish with something you can do and a QR-verifiable certificate to prove it.

Enrol online at <https://zambesi.ac.zw/course.php?slug=digital-law-rights-and-ethics> or contact info@zambesi.ac.zw / +263 7X XXX XXXX.

